Everyone is welcome to join us for our Public Event, featuring contributions by David Yamada, Professor of Law and Director of the New Workplace Institute at Suffolk University Law School in Boston, and James Edward Jones, Associate Professor of World Religions and African Studies, together with musical guests. This event is free and open to all.

Two-Day Workshop, December 4–5, 10:00 am - 5:00 pm
If you would like to participate in the workshop part on Transforming Humiliation and Violent Conflict, please kindly send your message along with your CV or other introductory information to: workshops@humiliationstudies.org. This workshop offers a unique opportunity to share ideas and connect with others working around the world. It is designed to maximize the benefits of collaboration and to stimulate ongoing conversations about creating constructive change. This work is convened by the Human Dignity and Humiliation Studies (HumanDHS) network and World Dignity University (WDU) initiative, together with the Morton Deutsch International Center for Cooperation and Conflict Resolution (MD-ICCCR) as part of the Advanced Consortium on Cooperation, Conflict, and Complexity (AC4).
