

Human Dignity & Humiliation Studies Dialogue Home - Portland, Oregon (PDX)

Welcome!

*A place for connection
and community...*

A Dignifying Idea!

The idea of building Dialogue Homes around the world was born in 1997. Håkon Gunderson, together with the then Egyptian Ambassador to Norway, Dr. Hefny Madgy, and Dr. Evelin Lindner, initiated a vision of developing special locations for people to join in dialogue about conflict resolution and equal dignity. Dialogue Homes would offer a special space to encourage conversations promoting peace and positive change in the world!

Meet...

*A place for dignifying
dialogue...*

Relax

*A place for inspiration
and for inspiring
others...*

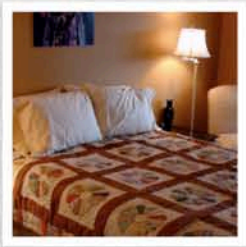

At the 2008 HumanDHS Conference in Norway, a number of us discussed the idea of developing a network of "dialogue homes" by using our own homes!

Read...

A place for relating and renewal...

Inspired by this idea, Linda Hartling, Ph.D., and Rick Slaven, Ph.D., are happy to announce the opening of their version of a Dialogue Home in Portland, Oregon. Portland is recognized as the most sustainable city in the United States!

Kest...

*A place for building peace
and peace within...*

Linda and Rick invite HumanDHS friends traveling through Oregon to visit or stay!

To check availability, please email Linda at lhartling@wellesley.edu. Guests are invited to stay for free, but donations to HumanDHS will be gladly welcomed!

Play...

A place for exploring and enjoying...

A world without humiliation dignifies us all...