Figure 2:
The Socialization of American Culture, Society, and Psyche:

Ethos
- Macrosocial
- Microsocial
- Person

(Green) (Blue) (Pink/Magenta) (Gold)

“Socializing a Culture of Peace”

- Hegemonic Globalization Discouraged – Cooperation with United Nations
- Peaceful and Non-Violent Entertainment are Promoted
- Peace, Harmony, Social Interest, & Justice at Person & Societal Levels
- Cooperation & Collaboration are Important
- Democracy Considered Standard But Not Imposed
- Spirituality as Connection, Awe, Reverence for Life and Others is Important. Prizing of Engi (i.e., Interdependecency)
- Religions Honor Differences and Encourage Knowing And Respecting Others
- National Department or Ministry of Peace.

- ECONOMICS
  - Wealth Sharing, Reduced Salary Gaps and Wealth Accumulation, Charitable Donations Encouraged

- GOVERNMENT
  - Leaders are Principled, Transparent, Open, Guided by Law and Ethics, Responsible to People
  - Carriers of Militarism Discouraged (e.g., arms sales, large military budgets, gun laws)

- MEDIA
  - Lobbying and Lobbyist Activities Reduced and Monitored. Special Interest Groups Transparent

- SOCIAL FORMATION
  - Isms (e.g., Sexism, Racism, Ageism) are to be Resolved. Diversity is prized.

- PERSON
  - Populace is Active and Participatory in Citizen Affairs. Grass Roots

  - Collective, Sociocentric, and Eco-centric Selves are Accepted

  - School
  - Family
  - Work
  - Community

  - Spirituality as Connection, Awe, Reverence for Life and Others is Important. Prizing of Engi (i.e., Interdependecency)