

We believe and support ALL survivors.

Sexual violence is rooted in power and control and is perpetuated by inequality and disparities in power. It is critical to center the needs of marginalized communities in order to provide all survivors with effective and empowering services.

INTERSECTIONALITY

"overlapping or intersecting social identities and related systems of oppression, domination, or discrimination."