

WE THE PEOPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS

determined to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small

- Preamble to the Charter of the United Nations

All Different

All equal

All human beings are born free
& equal in dignity and rights.

-Article 1 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

The United Nations and the specialized agencies embody the highest aspirations of the peoples of the world. Their aim is to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war and to enable every man, woman and child to live in dignity and freedom.

The values that are enshrined in the United Nations organizations must also be those that guide international civil servants in all their actions: fundamental human rights, social justice, the dignity and worth of the human person and respect for the equal rights of men and women and of nations great and small.

Harassment in any shape or form is an affront to human dignity and international civil servants must avoid it.

Freedom from discrimination is a basic human right. International civil servants are expected to respect the dignity, worth and equality of all people without any distinction whatsoever. Assumptions based on stereotypes must be assiduously avoided. One of the main tenets of the Charter is the equality of men and women, and organizations should therefore do their utmost to promote gender equality.

-Standards of Conduct for the International Civil Service
