

20 June 2013

Society and Business

Moderator: Associate Professor Kosheek Sewchurran

Panelists:

- Professor Evelin G Lindner, MD, PhDs (Dr of Psychology and Dr of Medicine)
- Professor Walter Baets and Erna Oldenboom, authors of the recently launched book: "Values Based Leadership in Business Model Innovation".
- Jenny Cargill, Special Advisor, Office of the Premier, Western Cape on the Green Economy
- Mewa Ramgobin; who led the clemency campaign to get political prisoners released has been about values and a dignity economy for the past 6-7 decades.
- Francois Bonnici: Director, Bertha Centre for Social Innovation and Entrepreneurship, UCT GSB

Venue:

UCT GSB, Faculty Hall

Date:

Friday, 5 July 2013

Registration:

12h00

Event Timing:

12h30 – 14h30

RSVP:

Click Here to RSVP online

Links to Speaker Profiles:

Associate Professor Kosheek Sewchurran

Specialising in Innovation Management and Information Systems at the UCT Graduate School of Business.

Professor Evelin Lindner

Recently published ideas on a dignity economy and leads the dignity university.

Professor Walter Baets

Walter Baets, Director of the UCT Graduate School of Business, is a Belgium-born author, professor, spiritual student and commentator on innovation and change, leadership, business economics and sustainability.

Erna Oldenboom

Erna Baets Oldenboom is a specialist in creativity, health and transformation. She has gained considerable experience in the wide area of human resources management and personal development within multinational companies.

Values Based Leadership in Business Model Innovation: Written by Prof Walter Baets and Erna Oldenboom

Jenny Cargill

Special Advisor, Office of the Premier, Western Cape on the Green Economy. Jenny is the author of Trick or Treat: Rethinking Economic Empowerment:

Mewa Ramgobin

Mr Mewa Ramgobin, is author of "Waiting To Live" and "Prisms Of Light", as well as National Vice President of the Congress of SA Writers and the first supporter of the release of Nelson Mandela and all other political prisoners. He was banned for 17 years, house arrested for 12 years, charged for treason in 1985, as well as Convener and Chairperson Committee for Clemency 1971. He was Member of Parliament until 2009. He is the founder of Centre for Learning of Ubuntu in the context of the Gandhian Trinity towards the African Renaissance for Global Co-Existence, Chairperson of Phoenix Settlement Trust, founded by Mahatma Gandhi in 1904.

Francois Bonnici

Director, Bertha Centre for Social Innovation and Entrepreneurship at the UCT GSB. Francois originally trained as a doctor in South Africa, graduating top of his class at the University of Cape Town's medical school. He subsequently read for a master's degree in Public Health (London) and a MBA on a Rhodes Scholarship at the University of Oxford's Said Business School.

\(Back to Newsletter Contents\)

FULL COLOUR THINKING

Tel: 021 406 1911 Fax: 021 406 1464 E-mail: marketing@gsb.uct.ac.za Web: www.gsb.uct.ac.za
The University of Cape Town, Graduate School of Business, Portwood Road, Waterfront, Cape Town
